

GREAT ARTISTS OF THE WORLD 2010

The Bangkok Symphony Orchestra Foundation and the Office of Contemporary Art And Culture, Ministry Of Culture, in association with B. Grimm & Co., ROP and Credit Suisse AG, is proud to announce preliminary information about the fourth Great Artists of the World Series. Like its predecessors, the 2010 Series features some of the world's most internationally acclaimed artists.

WEDNESDAY 31 MARCH 2010

CHANG AND BELLINCAMPI RETURN

Sarah Chang, violin plays
Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1 in G minor, Op. 26
with Giordano Bellincampi
Bangkok Symphony Orchestra

Sarah Chang earned a standing ovation from the sold-out Thailand Cultural Centre for her interpretation of the Brahms Violin Concerto in June 2009. Said the Bangkok Post reviewer, Ms. Chang possesses "impeccable technique, rock-solid intonation and superb musicianship." As in the Brahms, she will be partnered by conductor Giordano Bellincampi.

"Ms. Chang is a phenomenon. Her technique is almost intimidatingly brilliant. Her tone is lustrous." The New York Times

THE SILK ROAD ENSEMBLE with YO-YO MA, cello

Since its foundation in 2000, the Silk Road Ensemble, under the artistic direction of international superstar cellist Yo-Yo Ma, has presented innovative performances that explore the relationship between tradition and innovation in music from the East and West. The Ensemble has given performances in many locations ranging from concert halls to stadiums to museum galleries throughout the world, including Millennium Park in Chicago, Carnegie Hall in New York, Shanghai Stadium, Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles, the Royal Albert Hall in London and the United Nations General Assembly Hall. It is also featured on several CDs.

"We have developed a bond of mutual respect, friendship and trust that is palpable every time we're on stage." – Yo-Yo Ma

SATURDAY 27 NOVEMBER 2010

BARRY DOUGLAS BEETHOVEN CYCLE

Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1 in C major, Op. 13
Barry Douglas, pianist and conductor
Bangkok Symphony Orchestra

One of the most eagerly awaited concerts, Barry Douglas returns to Bangkok for the third in his cycle of the Beethoven concertos and symphonies. This concert is in honour of the Birthday of His Majesty the King on 5 December 2010.

"Brilliantly virtuosic performances" The New York Times

All concerts will be at the Thailand Cultural Centre Main Hall. Tickets will be available one month in advance of each concert at www.thaiticketmajor.com and at all ThaiTicketmajor outlets. A limited number of Early Bird tickets with a special discount of 20% will be offered approximately two months in advance. Full details will be provided at the beginning of 2010.
